

Designers ON DISPLAY

SHOWCASING SA'S FINEST INTERIOR & LANDSCAPE DESIGNERS

Dear Readers Take a deep breath.

Aahhh. Doesn't Spring smell wonderful? I love the fresh blossoms and the promise of new life that hangs on every branch, and peeps out of every flower bed. This season is ripe with bright promises, with my perennial favourite, blue-and-white, showing us just how classic style is done. There's a buzz in the Designers on Display team this month as our blog has really started taking off! We've gone treasure hunting in the prettiest nooks and crannies of the web, sharing our beautiful finds with you in the weeks ahead. What's more, some of our favourite contributors (including yours truly!) have taken the time to comment on their industries, and the trends they see becoming prominent this season. Head over to <http://designersondisplay.blogspot.com> to see what I'm talking about. You can follow the blog, or like us on Facebook to keep up-to-date with what we're chatting about. You're sure to find some inspiration just as we have, and at this rate, we'll all be making the world a prettier place in no time at all!

Be discovered ...

With all this excitement, there's never been a better time to be listed on the Everything for the Home online directory of interior, outdoor and lifestyle specialists. Boasting over 1200 hits per month, Everything for the Home is certainly one of the most popular directories of its kind in South Africa. And we have some exciting developments happening that we're just about ready to unveil. You really want to be a part of this, and take advantage of all the web has to offer.

To find out more about what's on offer and how to be involved, take a peek here. Contact me to sign up.

Back this month by popular demand is our events calendar (below). Don't forget to let us know when your event is happening, and we'll be sure to add it to our blog, Facebook and Twitter.

Keep South Africa Beautiful!

~ Megs xx

hellooow. handmade

hellooow...and welcome to hellooow handmade!
Take a look at our range of handmade jewellery, homeware & ceramic beaded chandeliers - all proudly made by HIV+ women of sunny South Africa! With Africa in our blood, and inspiration from the rest of the world, we hand make beautiful & original items. We work with talented local people, drawing from their culture and craft heritage to create gorgeous pieces, all with a unique South African flair.

Our hand rolled ceramic beads are made from a recycled paper clay and are kiln fired. They are then either glazed and used for our jewellery range or hand strung onto a wrought iron framework to create gorgeous ceramic chandeliers. The range is evolving constantly - some with a french influence, some more minimal and organic in design - a variety of designs, sizes and colours are available to suit any environment. Keep checking our website for updates...All of our chandeliers come with adjustable 'S-hooks' that link as a chain along with a matching ceiling plate.

CORRIE LYNN & CO.
HANDCRAFTED FURNITURE

Open Weekend: 28-30 October

Outside the studio at Corrie Lynn & Co, little lambs frolick and baby Nguni cows are bottle fed. A new season brings new inspiration. Inside, the craftsmen are wondering whether to create a cabinet from kiaat or make something beautiful from a piece of bird's eye maple? Transforming ideas and natural materials into functional art is their speciality.

Vessels of a Peculiar Paradise

Woodcut, Drawing and Mixed Media by Jeff Rankin exhibition opens 4 October - 15 October 2011

Walk about on Saturday 8 October 2011 10am

"The block is normally used to produce print editions, but I've also enjoyed seeing the original block become the artwork, a vessel to carry my subject, defined by the relief of the surface and colours in mixed media.

I have also had the need to revisit my love of drawing. As well as woodcut, this exhibition includes a mix of drawing and the lush inked colours of monotype. Most of the works are small in scale; all of them are vessels for the metaphors I use, for stories told in this peculiar paradise of mind and place." Jeff Rankin
